PRINCIPLE 1 – LAY SOLID FOUNDATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT AND OVERSIGHT
1.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complies	Section 1 of the Company's Corporate Governance Policy (CGP) sets out the Board Charter, including the roles and responsibilities of the Board. As stated in 1.1 of the CGP, the Board reviews and approves the Company's business plans and guiding policies. Day to day management of the Company's affairs and implementation of its strategy and policy initiatives are delegated to the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director who, in turn, delegates to other senior executives and management. This policy is disclosed on the Company's website: https://info.kellypartners.com.au/hubfs/Corporate-Governance-Policy-KPGH_-Update-August-2022.pdf?hsLang=en
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complies	Section 1.5 of the CGP sets out the process for appointment and retirement of Directors. It incorporates the factors which are considered by the Board when seeking new candidates and the disclosure to shareholders of both the process by which the Director candidate was selected and all relevant background information on the candidate. This policy is disclosed on the Company's website: https://info.kellypartners.com.au/hubfs/Corporate-Governance-Policy-KPGH_-Update-August-2022.pdf?hsLang=en
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	Section 1.5 of the CGP requires there to be written agreements entered into with each Director and Senior Executive. This policy is disclosed on the Company's website: https://info.kellypartners.com.au/hubfs/Corporate-Governance-Policy-KPGH_-Update-August-2022.pdf?hsLang=en

PRINCIPLE 2 - STRUCTURE THE BOARD TO BE EFFECTIVE AND ADD VALUE
2.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Complies	Section 5 of the CGP outlines the Nomination and Remuneration Charter. Under the Charter the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for the combined functions of Nomination and Remuneration. A combined Committee was established as the Board felt this was most suitable for the current size of the Company. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee has three members, a majority of whom are independent directors. The Chairperson of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is an independent director. The members of the Company's Nomination and Remuneration Committee are: Stephen Rouvray (Independent Chairperson), Ryan Macnamee (Independent member) and Brett Kelly (Executive member). Under the Charter the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will meet at least once yearly and is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • assessing the size, composition, diversity and skills required by the Board to enable it to fulfil its responsibilities to shareholders, having regard to the Company's current and proposed scope of activities; • assessing the extent to which the required knowledge, experience and skills are represented on the Board; • establishing processes for the identification of suitable candidates for appointment to the Board; • overseeing succession planning for the Board and CEO; • establishing processes to review the performance of individual directors and the Board as a whole; • assessing the terms of appointment and remuneration arrangements for non-executive directors; and • assessing and reporting to the Board in relation to remuneration of executive directors, recruitment, retention and termination policies and procedures, superannuation arrangements and all equity-based plans. The Charter is disclosed on the Company's website: https://info.kellypartners.com.au/hubfs/Corporate-Governance-Policy-KPGH_-Update-August-2022.pdf?hsLang=en The Board discloses for each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings in the Annual Report.
2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complies	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for devising the criteria for Board membership and assessment of the size, diversity and membership. The Company has disclosed the skills and expertise of the current Board in the Director's Report of the Annual Report. The Board has undertaken, and reviews periodically, a board skills matrix.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COUNCIL RECOMMENDATION		COMPLIANCE	COMMENT
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, affiliation or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Complies	The Annual Report sets out the Directors which the Board considers to be independent and the interests of each Director. The Board considers that 3 of the 6 Directors are independent, free from any business or any other relationship that could materially interfere with, or reasonably be perceived to interfere with, the independent exercise of their judgement and that each is able to fulfil the role as an independent Director. The independent directors are Stephen Rouvray, Ryan Macnamee and Lawrence Cunningham. Brett Kelly (appointed 16 April 2007) is the Executive Chairman, Stephen Rouvray (appointed 2 May 2017) is the Non-executive Director and Deputy Chairman, Ryan Macnamee (appointed 2 May 2017) and Lawrence Cunningham (appointed 1 July 2022) are the Non-executive Directors, Paul Kuchta (appointed 2 May 2017) and Ada Poon (appointed 6 September 2019) are the Executive Directors.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Does not Comply	The Board is comprised of three non-independent Directors and three independent Directors. The Board has been structured such that its composition and size will enable it to effectively discharge its responsibilities and duties. Each Director has the relevant industry experience and specific expertise relevant to the Company's business and level of operations. The Board considers that its structure is, and will continue to be, appropriate in the context of the Company's recent history. The Company considers that the non-independent Directors possess the skills and experience suitable for building the Company. Furthermore, the Board considers that in the current phase of the Company's growth, the Company's shareholders are better served by directors who have a vested interest in the Company. The Board intends to reconsider its composition as the Company's operations evolve, and may appoint additional independent directors as it deems appropriate.
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Does not Comply	Brett Kelly, founder and CEO of the Company is the chair of the Board. The Board believes that the current chair of the Board can and does make quality and independent judgements in the best interests of the Company and other stakeholders notwithstanding that he is a non-independent Director and is the current CEO which is not in accordance with the ASX Principles.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Complies	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for the induction of new Directors. This process is facilitated by the Company Secretary.
